MESSAGE FROM WILL’S PRESIDENT

Dear Members of the WILL Family and Friends:

A word to describe WILL’s FY21 is extraordinary.

Due to the pandemic, we did not graduate the Class recruited in the fall of 2019 in September 2020. We pivoted our approach, and through June 2021, to continue to provide WILL positive youth development programming and continue to provide social and emotional support for WILL youth, we did zoom meetings with them every two to three weeks on Saturdays for 2 to 3 hours that align with WILL’s pillars. In July 2021, we re-started in-person WILL programming. As several members of the 2019-2021 WILL Class were getting ready to head to college, to celebrate the group’s accomplishments before these individuals went to school, August 14, we graduated the Class. I am more than proud of the WILL youth in this Class who, with grit and commitment to their words, to themselves and their WILL classmates, remained engaged for two years and had an incredible experience.

After a year’s hiatus, the WILL Power Party, our signature fundraising event, returned virtually; you can view the virtual WILL Power Party here. We honored Three Crowns LLP as the WILL Partner of the Year for the firm’s outstanding commitment to and support of WILL and beat our revenue goal for the Party.

Despite the challenges associated with the pandemic, WILL had an outstanding year, and we ended the year with a six-figure surplus of revenue over expenses.

THANK YOU to everyone who was part of WILL’s success in FY21 and who has been involved in the success of WILL’s first 17 years - WILL youth and their families for believing in us and the positive impact WILL has on the youth with whom we work, the schools with whom we partner, the donors and funders who make the work we do possible, our program partners who assist us to provide amazing learning experiences for WILL youth, our volunteers, and Board members.

WILLiciously yours,
Steve

ADVENTURES IN LIVING · LESSONS FOR LIFE
WILL’S PILLARS

Wilderness Leadership & Learning is a transformative holistic 12-month, experiential learning, youth leadership, and life-skills development program.

“In WILL, I learned the importance of self-responsibility and to live life with meaning.” - Roy

OUR VALUE is found in our FOUR PILLARS:

Leadership & Self-Empowerment
Individual leadership, self-esteem, and confidence growth assist WILL youth increase their appreciation that each has the power and the ability to determine his/her life trajectory, to self-advocate, and to make decisions that lead to self-determination and self-sufficiency.

Critical Life Skills Development
WILL develops critical life skills, which are under-emphasized or not taught in school, such as financial literacy; accountability for behavior; communication skills; the importance of saying “please” and “thank you;” and how to make healthy nutrition decisions, set SMART (Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Relevant, and Time-Bound) goals, and create action plans to achieve them.

Environmental Awareness & Stewardship
Youth become more aware of the world around them and to be better stewards of the environment.

Cultural Awareness & Appreciation
WILL youth learn to be receptive to, to appreciate and to respect diversity and differences in others (e.g., race, gender, religion, country of origin, sexual orientation, and beliefs).

“Something I learned at Mount Vernon is how important it is to remember and learn from the past; not just to remember, but to reflect and to use the lessons from the past to help make the world a better place.” - Tania

WILL’s youth development activities are critical to the ongoing growth process by helping WILL youth (1) meet their basic personal and social-emotional needs to be safe, feel cared for, and have value, and (2) to build upon skills and competencies that allow them to be agents of change, and to be effective in their daily lives.

“Through WILL, I learned to plan ahead, to be organized, to persevere when things get tough, and to believe in myself.” - Gwen

Intertwined with the pillars that support and provide structure for the WILL curriculum/experience is the belief that empathy and compassion - caring about the world in which we live and caring for one’s fellow persons - are essential qualities to be an effective leader.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

WILL’s experiential learning activities enlarge the life experiences, enhance decision making and life skills, build character, and develop the leadership potential of WILL youth.

LIFESKILLS DEVELOPMENT

WILL’s life skills development programs develop youth abilities for adaptive and positive behavior, that enable youth to deal effectively with the life’s challenges.

Above and below are slides used during WILL Zoom sessions with WILL Youth as we continued to provide positive youth development programming and social and emotional support during the pandemic.

“We learn about SMART Goals in WILL so that we can set goals that are important to us and how to set the step by step plans we are going to use to achieve our goals.” – Kimberly

WILL’s Pandemic Response

In FY21, through June 2021, WILL continued its pivoted approach to provide WILL programming and social and emotional support for WILL youth with Zoom meetings every two to three weeks on Saturdays for 2 to 3 hours that align with WILL’s pillars. The topics covered (some with multiple sessions) were: Equity v. Equality, Financial Literacy, SMART Goals, 1st Aid, Biases, DEI, and Social Justice, Nutrition and Holistic Wellness, a College Admissions Forum, and Leave No Trace Ethics.

At the beginning of each session, after check-ins, shout-outs, and celebrating recent birthdays, we had discussions on topics that included: Hispanic Heritage Month (Delores Huerta), Ruth Bader Ginsburg, What are you thankful for, Indigenous American Heritage Month (several indigenous proverbs), the insurrection at The Capitol, Amanda Gorman’s poem The Hill We Climb, Black History Month (Mary McLeod Bethune, Barbara Jordan, Duke Ellington Shirley Chisholm, and Mae Jemison), and the efficacy of the COVID vaccine and why it is important to get vaccinated.

Some of the words WILL youth used to describe the Zoom meetings and the information discussed, include: beneficial, compelling, constructive, cool, educational, empowering, encouraging, engaging, enlightening, equity, fascinating, fun, helpful, hopeful, informational, important, inspiring, motivating, peaceful, powerful, rejuvenating, stimulating, unity, uplifting, and useful.

We re-started in-person WILL programming in July 2021.
